System Requirements:

There are no official minimum requirements to play this game. I have only been running this game on a 32GB USB stick as the client size (8GB), and a Macbook Pro (8GB RAM) so it will probably be playable on other computers and operating systems. You may get a better performance by removing any background processes. 1.1: Change the username to your desired username. Make sure to turn off the "Use computer name as player name" option on your server. Run the client. If your server can handle this amount of
