The idea of the game is to help a shadowless cat collect all the time cubes. Time Builder is a puzzle game. The basic game play is simple, the cat jumps from square to square. Every time the cat jumps he collects a cube. To win the game you need to collect 100 squares. The game provides an upper limit to the number of moves the cat can make and the number of all the cubes he can gather. Since my phone camera is not always good I made this cheat code for people who are using real hardware. This cheat code is split up into several parts. First of all the cheat code triggers that will start the game. Capslock = Start game Ctrl+Home = Open the menu Ctrl+Left = Jump to a tile Ctrl+Right = Jump to the previous tile Ctrl+Up = Next tile (jump to a new tile of the same row) Ctrl+Down = Previous tile (jump to a
